

THE CITY AND COUNTY

News Items From Our Own Town and Surrounding Country.

From Wednesday's Daily.
The city council will meet this evening.

F. C. Earle leaves for Phoenix this evening.

Mose Drachman of Tucson is a guest of Hotel Burke.

T. H. Hughes, of Los Angeles is registered at Hotel Burke.

A. F. Gregg has been appointed train master of the S. F. P. & P. to take effect today.

Born, September 14, in Prescott, to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burton, a son.

The case of Burke & Hickey vs. S. E. Patton is still on trial in the district court.

Sig Simon, Felix Coblenz, and Jake Spitz, three jolly commercial travelers, were in town today.

Lieut. Vance left Whipple today on a month's leave of absence, with permission of two more, if he likes his vacation.

J. W. Hubbard and family are moving into the Rodenburg residence in Prescott.

A deed was filed for record today from G. W. Hull to Susanna Rogers for lot 27, block 4, Jerome, the consideration being $200.

C. J. St. Claire and Frant Merritt, both of whom were arrested on suspicion of being the murderers of Druggist Pratt, at Gila Bend, have been discharged.

J. Roe Young, ex-Indian agent at Safford, has just been offered $25,000 for his interest in a mining claim. It is hoped that the present agent may do as well.

The Grand Canyon Hotel at Flagstaff, costing $20,000 with its contents and the residence of John Harrington with its contents were destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon.

Leonard White had a jury trial yesterday before Judge Campbell, charged with an assault on L. A. Davies, the mining man. The jury returned a verdict, with very short deliberation, of not guilty.

Articles of incorporation of the Prescott and Eastern Railroad Company were filed with the territorial secretary yesterday, together with a notice of intention of the company to build a railroad from Prescott to Big Bug. The incorporators are D. M. Ferry, C. C. Bowen, Simon J. Murphy, N. K. Fairbanks, Jay Morton, F. M. Murphy and George W. Kretzinger.

Mrs. R. S. Stockton mourns the loss of her trunk as a result of the railroad collision near Emporia, Kansas. She stopped for a day or two in Kansas City to visit relatives and had her trunk checked through to Prescott on the ill fated train, which met with disaster near Emporia. All she has to show that she ever owned a trunk is her railroad baggage check.

T. B. Starr is coming from Colorado Springs with a special train and a cow. This is probably the first cow that has ever traveled across the continent in a Wagner palace car—to be sure, it is a baggage car, but it is also a Wagner car, and forms part of the special train. Mr. Starr is a bright and shining light in the galaxy of millionaires, for he comes with five others in his own train of a palace car and two baggage cars, including the cow car and the man who attends on the animal.—Los Angeles Express.

Common vanilla is tonka bean—there may or may not be vanilla in it.

Schilling's Best is vanilla alone and is worth three times as much money.

Money-back.

From Thursday's Daily.

Who will T. M. Earnhart's successor be?

Walter C. Miller, of Jerome, is in town.

F. M. Murphy and party have returned from Phoenix.

Mrs. Fannie C. Horne, mother of Mrs. A. A. Gray, left for San Diego yesterday.

The Phoenix city council cannot make a quorum to meet as a board of equalization.

Tombstone was deprived of mail for several days by a railroad wash-out.

J. J. Fisher and Arthur Hendy left for Squaw creek mining district this morning.

E. E. Kirkland and family, of Kirkland valley, have moved to Phoenix for the winter.

Dr. A. J. Chandler came up from Phoenix this morning, and will return shortly to his office.

Articles of incorporation for an Alaskan railroad have been filed with the secretary of the territory.

Politics are said to be waxing hot in Phoenix again. It is an extremely cold day when they can't warm matters up in the capital city.

William McQuigg was brought in from the Crowned King mine last night, suffering from injuries received by a rock falling on his back.

A Phoenix butcher a few days since shipped a car load of fat cattle from this county to Phoenix for his market.

T. M. Earnhart has resigned as a member of the board of supervisors, on account of his business being of such a nature as to require his attention.

The fall millinery season is here. A. Blumberg had an opening yesterday. M. Goldwater & Bros., mammoth store has been thronged today with ladies, and Mrs. R. R. Blaine has an announcement in this issue.

The Phoenix Herald says that there is a demand in that city for an investment of $50,000 to $75,000 in a good building that will afford store rooms, offices, lodge rooms and a good theatre.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER. Absolutely Pure. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Dr. C. T. Abbott left for Jerome this afternoon.

Charles Jett, a pioneer of Big Bug and the owner of a small Klondike placer claim, which he is successfully working, was seen in town yesterday for the first time in many months. He says that activity is noticeable everywhere in that section, the town of Mayer being the center of a building boom, the onyx works in full operation under Mr. DeHill, and that many mining men come to size up claims from that point. The proposed Big Bug railroad, Mr. Jett says, is universally popular and with its construction there will follow a new era in the industrial affairs of eastern Yavapai at the present time consider in the line of importance and advancement.

Wm. Duncan, a former resident of the Verde valley, came in today from California, where he now resides.

E. E. Ellinwood announces that as he is about to retire from the office of United States Attorney for Arizona, he has opened a law office in the Babbitt building at Flagstaff for the general practice of law, and will attend each of the regular sessions of court held in Apache, Coconino, Navajo and Mohave counties.

The case of Burke & Hickey vs. S. E. Patton still occupies the time of the court and jury. The court room was littered up today with exhibits consisting of sections of tin roofing, tin gutters, tin water spouts and various other paraphernalia. It is thought that the case will come to a close this evening.

General Orders Number 5, issued from headquarters of the National Guard of Arizona, among other things, says: "For distinguished services in connection with the reorganization of the National Guard of Arizona, Edwin S. Gill, ex-adjutant general of Arizona, is hereby appointed a member of the 'National Guard Veterans,' with the rank of colonel, and will be entitled to wear the uniform of his rank upon all occasions of ceremony."

Phoenix visitors to the Grand Canyon announce a most remarkable phenomenon there during their visit. One of their number took Captain John Hance off to one side and in a confidential talk succeeded in getting him to tell the truth. The veteran guide and scout of the Grand Canyon admitted that the yarn that he has been telling for years, that the canyon is eighteen miles wide at its place, was not reliable, that its distance from rim to rim is only six miles.

From Friday's Daily.

An experienced and competent dress maker desires sewing by the day in private families. Apply on Marina street, second door south of the Johnson house. 8-1716

The following are among the arrivals at the Hotel Burke: E. Ziegler and Jas. May, Congress; A. B. Boswell, Los Angeles; J. F. Wilson, Phoenix.

E. C. Bartlett has returned from a visit to Tucson, where he purchased the Legal Tender saloon in company with J. L. Broyles, formerly of Ash Fork. Mr. Bartlett has interests now in Prescott, Jerome and Congress in this county, also in Phoenix and Tucson.

Read Goldwater Bros.' millinery ads and learn from whom to purchase your new fall hat or bonnet.

C. W. McFarland, a former proprietor of the Jerome News, is in town.

Born in Prescott, September 17, to Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnston, a daughter. Being their first born they are naturally the recipients of many congratulations from their friends. Mother and child are both getting along, nicely.

The time in which to file notice of intention to build railroads in order to secure exemption from taxation, in accordance with a law passed last winter, has expired.

A commission has been issued to F. E. Jordan, as postmaster at Jerome.

The local item crop has been exceptionally light for several days.

C. W. Pugh, editor of the Phoenix Stockman, is said to be a very sick man and grave fears are entertained of his recovery.

Articles of incorporation of the Florence, Mesa & Globe Railway were filed in the office of the territorial secretary yesterday. The incorporators are C. C. McNeill, F. B. Sandford, H. E. Kemp, J. H. Kibbey and H. L. Creighton. The capital stock is $2,000,000. Notice of intention regarding building the railway was also filed by C. C. McNeill. The estimated length of the road is ninety miles.

Two deeds were filed for record today from G. W. Hull to G. B. Niblock. One was for lot 21, block 7, and the other for lot 25, same block, Jerome, the consideration in each being $50.

The Pearson Stock Company has reorganized and will shortly take the road again. They are negotiating for a date in Prescott.

Only four more days till the equinox and an equinoctial storm seems to be coming.

The Hotel Burke case is still on in the district court. Several more segments of the building were taken up today and introduced as evidence.

A deed has been filed for record from H. R. Tittle to Robert M. Garrett for lots 7 and 9, block 23, Prescott, the consideration being $200. Mr. Garrett proposes to build a residence on the lots.

Drs. Scott Helm, Charles D. Belden, and Winifred Wylie, have been appointed pension examining surgeons at Phoenix.

The Phoenix Gazette says that "an individual insulted several young school girls in the east end of yesterday afternoon." Now that is simply flimsy. To insult a girl at any time is outrageous but just think of doing such a despicable trick in "the east end of the afternoon." The villain!

The Journal-Miner has just received the largest and finest lot of samples of the very latest styles in dance programs, wedding stock, invitations and announcements, menu cards for private parties or banquets, birth announcements, etc., ever received in Prescott. Parties in need of any kind of work of this kind are invited to call and look at samples.

John Clark of Lynx creek left some choice specimens of peaches from his orchard at this office today. He says the hail injured his fruit this year to the extent of $200 or $300.

Miss Mira Wilson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. P. Wilson, of Flagstaff, was married, September 15, to Dr. W. S. Robinson, a young physician of Flagstaff.

Since leaving this country two years ago William Duncan has acquired very valuable mining property near the boundary line of Maricopa and Tolumene counties California. He has a mill on the property and recently refused an offer of $75,000 for it. He is visiting this section for the purpose of closing out his interests here.

Go to the Hotel Burke for a chicken dinner tomorrow.

The Prescott brass band will give a concert tomorrow evening.

Miss May Genuing, the charming Santa Maria school teacher, who has been visiting Prescott friends, returned today to her station.

A. O. U. W. lodge meets tonight at 8 o'clock in K. of P. hall. Work in W. degree.

It is not a question of who will be supervisor of Yavapai, but who wants it? As yet there are no "Richmonds" in sight.

John Martin, superintendent of the Providence mines, is in town.

Jerry Barton has sold his Congress saloon.

Isaac T. Stoddard and son are in town.

R. R. Coleman has gone back to Walnut Canyon.

Hotel Burke will serve an elegant chicken dinner tomorrow. The bill of fare will be quite elaborate and will contain enough variety to please all palates. The new chef and assistant, recently employed there are giving excellent satisfaction, as they thoroughly understand their business.

The two supervisors and the probate judge choose a supervisor for a vacancy in Yavapai on the board. They will probably get together next month early.

Cattle shipments continue to be made from the ranges, notwithstanding the season is about at an end. On this line of business John Heck, the Phoenix dealer, has just loaded five cars at Kirkland for delivery in Phoenix, and the same are en route. More shipments are to be made in other localities in limited numbers, all the desirable animals being glutted from the ranges.

From Saturday's Daily.

The Baptist church is receiving a thorough renovation, both inside and out, and its appearance already greatly improved.

The Phoenix Republican announces upon the authority of United States Attorney Ellinwood that his successor will be appointed before the close of this week.

Pong Murphy, whose departure for China was mentioned yesterday, was accompanied by six of his cousins. They secured some specimens of Arizona ore from the Prescott Mining Exchange before leaving.

An employee of Smith's meat market was discharged this morning and is now in jail, charged with carrying concealed weapons. That a more serious charge is not booked against him is probably due to the prompt action of a deputy sheriff. The man had trouble with W. H. Smith and the latter, it is alleged, knocked him down. After getting a settlement and securing his money the man went to a store and bought a 38-caliber pistol and loaded it with cartridges. As he acted in an excited manner the affair was reported to the sheriff's office and Deputy Lacy was detailed to watch his movements. He followed him over to Smith's market and arrested him just as he is alleged to have been in the act of pulling his gun.

Editor Charles D. Reppy, of the Florence Tribune, was in town yesterday on his way to Los Angeles. His wife is there very ill and a surgical operation has been decided to be necessary. It will be performed tomorrow. Mr. Reppy will be there for the result is said by the physicians to be very doubtful.—Republican.

Frank Raymond came in from Chaparral.

Merit

Is what gives Hood's Sarsaparilla its great popularity, its constantly increasing sales, and enables it to accomplish its wonderful and unequalled cures. The combination, proportion and process used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla are unknown to other medicines, and make Hood's Sarsaparilla

Peculiar to Itself

It cures a wide range of diseases because of its power as a blood purifier. It acts directly and positively upon the blood, and the blood reaches every nook and corner of the human system. Thus all the nerves, muscles, bones and tissues come under the beneficent influence of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

The One True Blood Purifier. $1 per bottle. Cures Liver, Skin, and all other blood diseases. Easy to operate. 20c

Official facsimile of Medal Awarded

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

WORLD'S FAIR, CHICAGO, 1893

F. R. Raymond is in town today.

A cutting scrape occurred at an early hour this morning in which Frank Spence seriously, though it is thought, not dangerously, cut J. E. Coker. It is stated that Spence had some words with another man, a friend of Coker, and the two left the place, and were standing outside when Coker saw Spence approach with a knife. Coker tried to prevent him from reaching his friend and in so doing received several cuts from a knife, being cut in the arm, hand and side. While his wounds are quite painful, they are not considered dangerous. Spence was arrested.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Henderson are visiting Prescott today from Lynx creek.

An attachment was issued yesterday and served against the agent of a mining company who had a car load of Klondike concentrates ready to ship east. The matter was taken into court, and the judge held that the company property was not responsible for the personal luxuries of the man who accrued the indebtedness, and ordered the case thrown out of his legal mill. The aggrieved parties then went to sleep and in the early morning hours were seized with summbustle ten upon the personal property in the apartments where their victim was sleeping the sleep of a victor, and in the lustre of a bright moon was snoring contentedly and murmuring something about Blackstone doings on the Hassayampa.

The sheriff noticed a big white diamond lying in a white shirt on the floor, in regular bache style, and took it in. The under sheriff then gobbled up a bundle of silk underwear, hats, boots and shoes and a necktie with another "spark" in it and both left. The morning after, the gay slumberer awoke, he had to rustle for "attachments" to make his physical proportions half way presentable, and thus equipped he again threw himself before the judge for "redress." The judge sized him up legally, heard his pitiful story, and said "nit."

The celebrated case of Burke & Hickey vs. S. E. Patton, a suit involving the construction of Hotel Burke, and which has been before the district court for a week, is receiving the finishing touches this afternoon. A brilliant array of legal gentlemen are arguing the case, and it will be given to the jury this evening.

Alderman Smith is engaged in his local vocation, that of drawing plans and specifications for the covering of the reservoir on the hill. We understand it is the intention of the municipal officials to carry out this improvement, by which it is intended to not only save a great percent in evaporation, but likewise guarantee a supply of pure and wholesome water. The council is also considering the advisability of building the walls higher that surround the reservoir, thus affording greater storage capacity.

The Phoenix Herald arrives in Prescott now the second morning after publication, being about forty hours old when received here. It formerly came the following publication, being received the earliest after publication of any paper, but for the past few days it seems to have failed to connect with the evening train.

Mr. Jay Cummings, a special agent of the general land office with headquarters at Los Angeles, arrived in town yesterday. He has been detailed to Arizona for the purpose of investigating the evidence of the Dawes case, of which the Republican made extensive mention lately. He will also investigate a decision by the supreme court of this territory a couple of years ago, wherein it was held that mesquite wood was not timber, and that the cutting of timber on government land. In this connection, it is stated, that prosecutions will be instituted against persons who have violated the law. Mr. Cummings is regarded as one of the most efficient agents in the service. He served during the Harrison administration and was the first official reinstated under the McKinley administration.—Phoenix Republican.

F. S. Jackson and H. W. Joscelyn have leased the Yavapai Reporter. The former is a brother of Orick Jackson, foreman of the Journal-Miner office, and is a practical printer of years of experience. His partner is a brother of A. E. Joscelyn, proprietor of the paper.

Mrs. J. L. Fisher and her daughter, Miss Hattie, returned yesterday from their visit to California.

Harry Tittle came up from Phoenix Sunday morning for a brief visit. He will return to the capital again this evening.

J. H. Costello, J. H. Costello, Jr., and Frank Halladay of Buffalo, New York, are registered at Hotel Burke.

The band failed to give a concert last night owing to the rain.

Saturday morning's cutting scrape was not as bad as at first reported. Coker, after having his wounds dressed, was up and around all day. Spence was taken before a justice of the peace in the afternoon for a preliminary examination and was discharged.

Frank Genuing is visiting town, coming from Peeples valley. He says that mining prosperity is evident in that section, many new prospects being found and considerable deep mining is going on. Two new quartz mills are being built and the outlook is very flattering.

From Monday's Daily.

Prescott and Tucson are said to be the Monte Carlos of Arizona and from the number of votaries of many games—from the roulette wheel to the square box—that are daily arriving in the city and enrolling their names on the Montezuma street register, creates the belief that the advance agent of some sort of prosperity is circulating in this sphere or else the itinerant "tin-horn" would not be as numerous and industrious as is noticeable. The sports say that Prescott and Tucson are good towns and are referred to as Klondykes.

The rainfall yesterday amounted to .47 of an inch.

William O. Kellner has been appointed postmaster at Globe.

The supervisors of Maricopa county have issued over two hundred leases to occupants of school lands in the Salt river valley. Many thousands of dollars will hereafter be realized from school lands that heretofore could not be taxed in any form for the support of the government.

Mrs. Evans, wife of City Attorney Pierce Evans, of Phoenix, died recently at Oakland, California, of neuralgia of the heart.

Messrs. Boardsly and Morey paid in cash $27,000 of the indebtedness of the Agua Fria Company during their recent visit to Phoenix and gave notes for the balance of $10,000. They expect to commence work on the dam soon again.

The following telegram from San Francisco has a local interest here, inasmuch as one of the parties referred to is well known here as a railroad builder: Prince Pontowat-ski and T. S. Bullock, the New York broker and railroad contractor, who are spending about $800,000 in the construction of the Sierra Pacific railroad from Okdale on the Southern Pacific to Jamestown, Tuolumne county, expect to have the road completed by October 7 next. The road will be forty-two miles long. It is the intention to next year build two branch lines. One will run north from Jamestown to Angels, and the other south to Coulterville.

Col. John Rigger, known to all Southwestern people as "Frosty" is among the recent arrivals in the city, coming from that warm country, Phoenix. "Frosty" will winter here and then tackle the Klondike regions in the spring.

If you can get any satisfaction out of a 10c or 15c Vanilla Extract, so-called, then most any baking powder will do.

But if you know the good of Flavoring Extracts and Spices like Tullmann's then you also want Trophy Baking Powder.

Tullmann & Benda, Mfrs.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Paine came in Saturday evening from Albuquerque where they were married on Thursday. They are domiciled at the P. A. Williams residence.

J. H. Sagehorn, who was arrested a few days since for carrying concealed weapons, was today sentenced by Justice Campbell to pay a fine of $50 or to spend 50 days in jail.

F. W. Smith has been appointed postmaster at Seligman.

The jury in the case of Burke & Hickey vs. S. E. Patton arrived at a verdict yesterday morning. It was sealed and returned in open court this morning. It was for plaintiff, awarding him $684, the amount sued for aggregating $2,257.

Chas. Berry was brought in last evening from Williams suffering from the effects of a stroke of lightning. He was engaged in a horse race in Cataract canyon, near Mooney's Falls, when lightning struck within forty feet of him, the shock rendering him unconscious for three days. He is unable to see yet.

A deed was filed for record today from G. W. Hull to Isabelle Ervin for lot 23, block 11, Jerome, for $50.

A. A. Moore, of Walnut Grove, is in town today.

The will of the late Charles Julian, of Jerome, was admitted to probate today. All of the property belonging to the estate is bequeathed to Q. W. Hull, who was appointed administrator, with the will annexed.

A man was brought up from Congress this morning to serve a thirty days' sentence for battery committed on a merchant there.

Yesterday was a day of rain.

Judge J. H. Kibbey and Wade Hulings, of Phoenix, are in town on legal business.

Ed. Wagoner is up from the City of Wagoner, on the Hassayampa.

D. W. Art, of Minnehaha, is in town.

Dr. Chas. D. Belden, of Phoenix, is a guest of Hotel Burke.

A telegram received here today states that a fire occurred in Phoenix last night in the confectionery store and ice cream parlors of J. A. Phillips. The place had been previously saturated with coal oil, showing that the fire was incendiary. Blood hounds were placed on a trail near the burned building, and they followed the trail to Mr. Phillips' residence, and the telegram stated that he was placed under arrest.

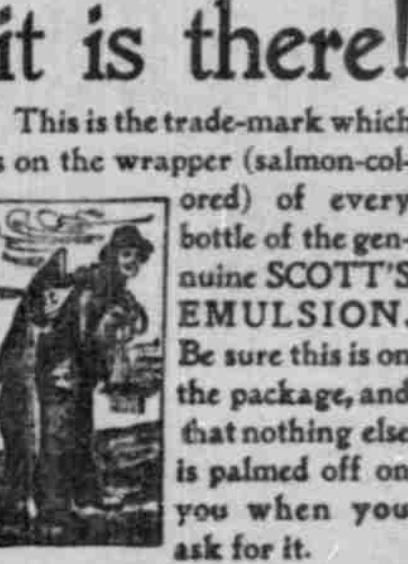

Frank Prantz, F. A. Tittle, Jr. and A. D. Barnhart went hunting yesterday for deer and bear, but returned without any game.

H. Blauvelt, of the Gladiator mine, is in town.

Col. A. O. Brodie arrived in town last evening from the Crown Point mine.

See that it is there!

This is the trade-mark which is on the wrapper (salmon-colored) of every bottle of the genuine SCOTT'S EMULSION.

Be sure this is on the package, and that nothing else is palmed off on you when you ask for it.

Nothing has been made that equals it to give strength and solid flesh to those who are run down or emaciated.

Your doctor will tell you that it is the one food for all those whose weight is below the standard of health.

Put up in 50 cts. and $1.00 sizes, and sold by all druggists.

SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

From Tuesday's Daily.

James Grey, a very popular locomotive engineer, formerly employed on the S. F. P. & P. railroad, but now having a regular run on the S. F. P. road west of Needles, passed through Prescott on last night's train en route to Nogales. Jim Grey has a host of friends here who are always glad to meet him.

Harry Isaacs, division baggage agent of the S. F. P. railroad, passed through Prescott last evening en route to Phoenix.

S. P. Behan went south on official business last evening.

Judge J. J. Hawkins is in Tucson.

General Passenger Agent G. M. Sargent, of the S. F. P. & P. railroad, returned last evening from a brief visit to Flagstaff.

Deputy Sheriff Jack Nelson, of Crowned King, has been in town for two or three days.

S. W. Higley, in charge of the water service of the S. F. P. & P. railroad, has moved his family to Phoenix for the winter.

Dr. D. J. Brannen was today appointed administrator of the estate of the late Dan O'Boyle.

Sam Landon, the well known engineer, formerly in the employ of the S. F. P. & P. railroad, has opened a furniture store at Jerome. He took a small stock of furniture over to that live camp a short time since, and sold it all out in a few days. He has just purchased a car load in Phoenix.

The horse driven by J. P. Bruce at the time of his death, and which escaped the flood, has since died from the effects of injuries received by being washed down the stream.

Jerry Barton has leased the Scovel saloon and two story brick lodging house, taking possession of them today.

The noted fat boy of the Maricopa Indian reservation died recently. He was only nineteen years old and weighed 400 pounds. His death was caused by heart failure.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harmon, of Jerome, died yesterday.

Judge H. C. Truodale returned to Prescott again this morning to take Judge Sloan's place on the bench for the trial of a number of cases.

Judge A. O. Noyes has a crab apple tree in his yard which is a record breaker. He has picked 455 pounds from it, selling $14.50 worth for cash, besides using all his family required, and giving some to his neighbors, and it still has about twenty-five pounds on it. If there is a crab apple tree in the territory which can beat this record just let its owner speak.

The box factory at Williams was destroyed by fire a few days ago. Loss, $45,000.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Andrews have taken a lease on Mrs. Stull's residence for a year. Mrs. Stull will go to California.

J. B. Ricketts, of the Verde valley, is establishing title to some desert land in the Verde valley in the land office today.

The case of Dewey vs. The Maricopa Mining Company has been on trial today in the district court. The jury returned a verdict late this afternoon for defendant.

County taxes are now due. They will become delinquent December 20th.

The rainfall yesterday amounted to .06 of an inch.

E. Abrahams, A. Applebaum and M. M. Poole, three jolly commercial travelers, are at the Winsor.

City taxes will become delinquent October 1.

A sensational find was made today in the rear of the Palace saloon and between that building and D. Levy & Co.'s store. It consisted of eight sticks of giant powder with cap and fuse attached. Investigation led to the belief that it had been placed there within the past few days, but no clue was obtained as to who did it, or what object the individual or individuals had who placed it there. The matter, therefore, remains an unsolved mystery.

Blood is Life